

Part-time Music Practitioner - Key Stage 2

We are a two-form entry junior school, offering a beautiful setting, with excellent facilities, good resources, supportive staff and enthusiastic children. We have an exciting opportunity for a music specialist to take responsibility for teaching music to class groups of 7-11 year olds.

The successful candidate will be:

- a capable KS2 music practitioner, with experience of designing and teaching inspiring and engaging music sessions to pupils from Year 3-Year 6, based on the National Curriculum for Music
- a person who is able to lead a Hymn Singing session
- a person who is able to play a musical instrument (piano/guitar)
- a person who is willing to run music clubs within lunchtime or after school (e.g drums, choir)
- a person who is able to lead a choir and support school performances
- an advocate of our school values – the 5C's – curiosity, confidence, cooperation, caring and courage.
- a team player who shares our vision, passion and enthusiasm for learning
- a great communicator who is able to develop positive relationships with staff and pupils
- a person who strives for excellence, has high expectations and enjoys school life In return we can offer:

- a high achieving school which is caring and friendly
- children who are cheerful, confident and enthusiastic learners
- a motivated, professional and lively team of staff
- a school with a creative and broad curriculum
- a school that works in close partnership with parents and the community
- support from enthusiastic governors with an exciting vision for the school
- a commitment to inclusive practises
- training and support to help you continue developing and improve your practise

The salary is from £28,343 pro-rata, depending on qualifications and experience. We are looking for the music teaching to take place for up to 10 hours per week – ideally worked over two afternoons and one morning, but hours are negotiable. The post is available to start from either June or September 2019 for a fixed term of one year in the first instance.

Oakfield Junior School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post involves working with children and therefore if successful you will be required to apply for a Disclosure and Barring Service Enhanced Check. Oakfield Junior School is an equal opportunities employer.

Applicants must submit a completed application form (no CV's please) and should state their experience, strengths and interests. Visits are warmly welcomed. Further details and application forms are available from:

Oakfield Junior School, Bell Lane, Fetcham, Leatherhead, Surrey, KT22 9ND

e-mail: parent@oakfield.surrey.sch.uk Phone: 01372 374781

Website: www.oakfieldjunior.com

Closing date for receipt of applications 9am, Friday 26th April.