

Special Needs Teaching Assistants Three Positions Available

We are looking for energetic and highly motivated Special Needs Teaching Assistants to join our school.

Post One: 15 hours per week – To support a child in year 5 with complex social, emotional and learning needs over five afternoons (12:15 -3:15) To start as soon as possible.

Post Two: 15 hours per week - To support a child with ASD and specific learning difficulties over 5 afternoons (12:15-3:15) To start in September 2019.

Post Three: 12 hours per week – To support a child with ASD and learning difficulties over 4 afternoons (12:15-3:15) To start in September 2019.

The successful candidates will:

- Be energetic and creative, with the ability to motivate and inspire pupils in their care
- Have high expectations of children in their care, in the areas of achievement and behaviour
- Promote our values – the 5C's – courage, confidence, curiosity, co-operation, caring.
- Have the ability to work proactively, using set objectives to plan and deliver activities to enable pupils to attain expectations
- Understand how children learn and recognise the abilities of those in their care
- Be committed to developing children as independent learners
- Be an excellent communicator and able to develop positive relationships with children and staff
- Work well as part of a team, demonstrating empathy, focus and commitment

In return we can offer an exciting and challenging environment, a dedicated, hardworking and supportive staff team and excellent opportunities and commitment to staff professional development.

Salary is Surrey Pay 3; currently £17,316- £18,242 p.a. (full time equivalent). This equates to a pro-rata salary of £6,087 for the 15 hour posts and £4,870 for the 12 hour post. The posts are term-time (38.6 weeks per annum) and initially for a fixed term until 22 July 2020. As the contract is to provide additional support for SEND pupils this appointment may terminate on the date that the pupil(s) leave the school or on the date that the need for the additional support ceases. Wherever possible TA's are retained to support other SEND pupils within the school. However, any continued employment may be subject to a change in working hours and alterations to duties and responsibilities.

We are a two-form entry junior school, offering a beautiful setting, with excellent facilities, good resources, supportive staff and enthusiastic children. We are committed to inclusive practices, the achievement of high standards and working in close partnership with parents and the community.

Oakfield Junior School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
