

Snowdonia

Where is Snowdonia

Snowdonia is in north-western Wales. It covers 823 square miles. It is the largest National Park in Wales. It was first to be designated of the three National Parks in Wales. It contains the highest peaks in UK outside of Scotland.

THIS IS SNOWDONIA ON A MAP. -----]-

How big is Snowdonia

Snowdonia is 2132 km squared. One of Snowdonia's 15 peaks is Mount Snowdon, it's the tallest one. It would take approximately 6 hours to walk up and down ; depending on the path you take you could be walking 7 to 10 miles. Mount Snowdon's elevation is 1085 metres and its prominence is 1038 metres.

When did Snowdonia become a National Park.

Snowdonia National Park was established in 1951 as the third national park in Britain, following the Peak District and the Lake District. It was also the first Welsh National Park out of the three parks which included Pembrokeshire Coast and Brecon Beacons.

Why is Snowdonia a National Park

Snowdonia is a national park because of its spectacular mountain peaks and its culture and language. It has many spectacular qualities including a unique landscape and its in the ancient Kingdom of Gwynedd. In Wales, they call Snowdonia Eryri.

What are the geographical features of Snowdonia

This Welsh landscape of mountains and valleys, forests, and lakes is actually known for its highest peak, Mount Snowdon it stands with a height of 3560 feet and is the highest point in England and Wales.

What is Snowdonia renowned for Snowdonia has long been a world-renowned tourist destination, it also has a fine industrial past. Its most famous product was slate, which was used for roofing on houses, factories and more for buildings all over Great Britain. Its beauty attracts many tourists from around the country and some from other parts of the world.

Activities at Snowdonia

There's too many to choose from they all look so fun but these are the top 10 activities at Snowdonia :

- Hike Mount Snowdon
- Go Zip Lining
- Go Surfing
- White water rafting
- Abseiling and Rock Climbing
- Mountain Biking
- Canyon Xtreme
- Trampoline park
- Ice Climbing
- Bear Grylls Survival Academy