

Britpop is a type of rock that started in the United Kingdom . Britpop came out of the British interdependent music scene of the 1990s and affected ,or changed , by the British guitar pop music of the 1990s and 1970s . This kind of music began as a reaction against some trends ,or styles , in the late 1990s such as grunge from the United States .After America grunge bands such as Nirvana came to Britain , many British bands acted as opposites to the American bands , wrote about only about British topics and concerns .
