

Parents and Pupils E-Safety Contract

Why Internet and digital communications are important

The Internet is an essential element in 21st century life for education, business and social interaction. The school has a duty to provide students with quality Internet access as part of their learning experience.

Internet use is a part of the statutory curriculum and a necessary tool for staff and pupils

The school Internet access is provided by schools broadband.co.uk/ Talk Straight and includes filtering appropriate to the age of pupils.

Pupils will be taught what Internet use is acceptable and what is not and given clear objectives for Internet use

Pupils will be educated in the effective use of the Internet in research, including the skills of knowledge location, retrieval and evaluation.

Pupils will be shown how to publish and present information appropriately to a wider audience.

Pupils will be taught how to report unpleasant Internet content e.g. using the CEOP (The Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre ) Report Abuse icon or Hector Protector.

A guide for parents and pupils promoting safe internet use at home and school.

Oakfield Junior School Pupil E-Safety Rules

I agree to follow these rules when using the internet in school:

I will only use the internet when I have been given permission from a teacher.

If I find any information that is unpleasant and makes me feel uncomfortable, I will tell a teacher immediately.

I will never give my full name, home address or telephone number when using the internet, even if I am asked to.

I will never arrange to meet someone I have e-mailed outside school hours. If I am asked to do so, I will tell a teacher immediately.

I understand that my teacher will check any e-mails or messages posted on Frog Primary that I send or receive and all of the web sites I visit.

I will not download any files unless I have permission.

I will not bring in a memory stick/software/CD Rom I use at home and use it on a computer in school unless I have permission to do so.

I understand that if I use the Internet irresponsibly then I may not be allowed to use it.
